

Reading Journal Bingo!

Choose one of the below activities to do after you have finished reading the assigned chapter or chapters. Complete the reading activity in your Reading Journal, then cross it off.

Make a list of as many adverbs you can find in the book.	List the characters from the story and draw a small picture of them.	Write 5 questions you would like to ask the main character in the story.	Write a paragraph about what you think of the main character in the story.	Make a list of the main places where the story takes place draw a picture.
Using ideas from the story, make a true or false quiz for a friend.	Write a paragraph about something that happened in the story.	Write a summary of the story.	Make a cartoon strip showing an event in the story.	Pick 3 words from your book and using a thesaurus, create a thesaurus page for the words.
In the story, find where the author has written words in bold or italic and explain why they have done this.	Design a new front cover for the story.	Using speech bubbles, draw a conversation between two Characters from the story.	Make up a word search using information from the book.	Write about how you think the story will end. Come back to check it when you are finished.
Explain why you think the author chose this title.	Draw a picture of where the story is set as you imagine it to be from the description in the book.	Draw a picture of your favourite part in the book.	Think of a new title for the book and describe why you chose it.	Write a new 'blurb' for the back of you book.
Make a list of as many adjectives as you can find in the book.	Write down any new word you found in the book and write the definitions.	Make up 5 questions you could ask someone about this book to test if they have read it properly.	Pretend you are one of the characters from the story. Write a diary for one day.	Write a letter to a friend telling them about the book. Explain why you think they should or should not read it.
Write a letter to the author telling them why you did or didn't like the book.	Write about who you would like to meet most in the story and why?	Make a poster to advertise the book.	Draw a picture of your favourite character and write down all the words the author used to describe them.	Think of the setting of the book. Write a paragraph about why you would or would not want to visit this place.