

Miss Shaw's Newsletter

Dear children and families,

I hope that you are all well and able to make the most of this lovely weather whilst sticking to the lockdown expectations. It is so tricky to keep going but it is working, which is so important.

On Sunday evening, Mr Johnson is going to tell us about how things are going to look as we move towards going back to normal life. I don't know what he is going to say about coming to school – I'm having to wait until Sunday too! After his speech on Sunday, I will start planning for any changes he wants to see. As soon as I can, I will write to all of you to let you know about our next steps. It will take time to do this – so please bear with me and the team here. Hopefully, I will be able to give you all some more information in next week's newsletter.

In the meantime, if you have any questions please email them to your class email. Your teachers will collect them together and I will send out a frequently asked questions section, once I know more.

Next week, Miss Owen will be contacting Finborough Hall about your trip. We are really sad that this can't go ahead but it just wouldn't be wise at the moment. Unfortunately, we have to wait for them to say we can't go or we will lose all the monies you have paid. As soon as we know more, we will write to you.

I have been thrilled to send out 5 more Headteacher's Awards this week. It has also been lovely to see some beautiful artwork (pointillism amongst others), photos of Ramadan Celebrations, stories and drama. Keep sending in your emails or posting them on Facebook.

Enjoy the Bank Holiday weekend

Miss Shaw

Weekly challenge.

Well done to those of you who had a go at last week's challenge. I've done lots of walking with Mollie who has also been chasing squirrels! They are far too quick so she never catches one. Phew!

This week's challenge is to bake or make a meal. I am going to have a go at making some chocolate brownies! I'll look forward to seeing some photos of what you make.

What's been happening in school this week with Miss Rattray and Team A?

The theme this week has been VE Day. The children have made bunting and baked for their celebration afternoon tea. They have also been working on their home learning menus, creating art with chalk, pond dipping as well as all the VE Day bits, making crazy golf games, creating illustrations, playing cricket, making junk cars and rock painting.

Miss Shaw's Newsletter

